

Were Wedded Half a Century Ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ohl of West Austintown who on Saturday last celebrated their Golden Wedding.

With children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren as well as other relatives and neighborhood folk for guests, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ohl happily celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary Saturday, Feb. 25. The assembly was in the family home, West Austintown, and was a gathering quite as noteworthy as that community has ever witnessed. Guests to the number of 125 came from Columbus, Warren, Youngstown and the West Austintown district.

A richly appointed dinner was a chief number on the day's program, yellow and white appointments being introduced. The same tones governed the very handsome house decorations. The worthy couple were remarried by Rev. P. F. DeVaux and during the service stood beneath a canopy of greens and tulips. Rev. H. Hensel of this city offered prayer. B. Jones presented the Lohengrin march while Mr. and Mrs. Eastman served as honor witnesses. Letters from W. Ohl, who was unable to be present on account of illness and from H. H. Brunstetter of Alva Okla., were read.

Fifty years ago Mr. and Mrs. Ohl who are justly counted with the worthy residents of West Austintown, were united in marriage in North Jackson. Their union was blessed with five children: Charles, Mrs. H. A. Stroup, Mrs. P. Handwork, Perry and Elmer Ohl. Eleven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren have come to brighten their late years. Both Mr. and Mrs. Ohl have for years been identified with the United Evangelical church and into their every day life have carried the principals of that faith. Loyal first to their family and connections they have found time, too, for neighborhood folks and friends in days of sorrow and gladness. They were given many pretty remembrances of the day, including several offerings in gold.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. William G. Blatt of Long Beach, Cal. From Youngstown: Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Hensel, Mr. and Mrs. Chance Ohl, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ohl, Mr. and Mrs. James Ohl, Mrs. Katherine Planton, Misses Lucinda Hensel, Blanche Schrum, Baby Hensel, LeRoy Hensel; Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Schrum, the Misses Maggie, Hazel Frances Schrum, Thomas Schrum; from Canfield: Mr. and Mrs. William

Mr. and Mrs. Ohl received a purse of $80 in gold besides many beautiful and valuable gifts.

Card of Thanks.

We heartily thank all relatives and friends present at our 50th wedding anniversary and especially those who participated in the purse of gold and the beautiful collection of presents which we received; also those who helped in any way to make the day so pleasant and enjoyable.

Our two dry-goods stores are having clearance sales this week. With their increased trade and the institute Berlin is very much alive.

Next week Wednesday night the Men's club will serve supper to a select number.

Mrs. Frank Reichard of Warren is visiting relatives here.

Last Saturday night quite a number of friends surprised Mrs. Howard Woolf in honor of her birthday.

Two new residences are to be erected on South street this spring, one by M. W. King and the other by the telephone company.

Dr. Carson will soon make some changes in his residence.

We understand Jesse Galbreath and family will move back to the farm in the spring and that people will be much surprised as to the new comers who will occupy their present place of abode.

Emerson Woolf was home from Mt. Union last Sunday.

Mrs. Gude's sister is visiting her. Miss Johnson is again teaching school after a siege of the mumps.

Mrs. Post is the guest of Mrs. Chester Harmon.

Annual Spring Opening Sale of Carpets and Rugs

Continues Until Saturday, March 11

This annual event is of more importance this year than ever before, because of the greater selections and the larger stocks.

Prices, too have been made wonderfully interesting.

Every home-maker, every hotel proprietor, should promptly take advantage of the great savings.

You are to keep in mind that our quotations are on all new Spring stock—just opened up—no old goods, no job-lots nor "auction" goods.

DEPENDABILITY is our watchword and in buying floor coverings, perhaps more than any other dry goods line, it is necessary to have confidence in the quality of the goods and in the seller of the goods.

Carefully Consider the Unusual Economical Advantages of This Annual Event

Hartford Saxony and Hardwick and Magee Rugs

Prices quoted are regular list prices as the manufacturers restrict dealers' prices. We publish these lists in order to acquaint you with the wide range of sizes in which these standard floor coverings are made:
